Hi everyone,

We had a fantastic week at Supercamp! The students had a wonderful time at all the activities and meeting new students from other school. A big thank you to Glen, Miss Secomb and Sally Muenster for joining us on camp as well.

This week we also had our reward day in Bourke. The students had a great time playing at the park, swimming at the pool and lunch at Titos. We look forward to having another great term of behaviour and another successful rewards day.

Just a reminder that school starts back for students on the 21st of May. We will be joined for the first four weeks by a prac Student, Linda Amos. We are excited to have her.

My Student of the Week this week is Sam Stone. Sam receives this award for his excellent behaviour on camp and being a great representative of our school. Well Done Sam!

Have a safe holiday and we will see you next term!

Regards,

Melissa Harrison

Preschool

This week we have been busy painting. We did shared painting on cardboard and did marble paintings. It was fun.

Playing doctors was a hit this week. We dressed up as doctors and made appointments over the phone.

We love reading books. Raeleah, Gabe and Jahqualyn came over to read to us. We also enjoy reading to each other and talking about books together.

Singing

We love singing songs with different actions. ‘Open Shut Them’ is one of our favourites at the moment. Why don’t you ask them to sing it to you.
